Program Summary

Vermont Youth Development Corps AmeriCorps members will implement multi-focused prosocial activities for youth in VT. At the end of the first program year, members will foster positive youth development and building resilience in youth, helping them avoid opioid abuse and other unhealthy behaviors. In addition, members will leverage 400 volunteers who will support member-led initiatives. This program will focus on the CNCS focus areas of Healthy Futures-Opioid Prevention and Multi-Focused Intermediary.
